CONSULTING

Thematic concepts are studied in depth through mood boards and production processes. Artists and fabricators are researched and identified, artwork specifications are defined and detailed. Placement and quantities are carefully examined to accommodate budgets.

DESIGN AND PRODUCTION

Once the art package is approved and in line with the client, interior designer and operator's direction, production begins. Production includes design phases and actual physical creation. At this stage the consultant is actively debriefing artists, supervising production and quality of artwork all the way to completion of the scope.

ART INSTALLATION

Artworks are completed and ready to go to the venue. The consultant supervises and ensures the safety of the delivery to the site and supervises third parties during installation. This may involve shipping artworks from abroad and also includes supervision of safety measures and packaging.
